Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The Department of Correction's Indian Juvenile Placements appropriation provides $75,000 annually to reimburse tribes and counties for unexpected or unusually high-cost out-of-home care placements of Indian juveniles who have been adjudicated delinquent.

This bill would limit the eligibility for reimbursement to tribes and counties that have Indian juvenile placements where the youth was adjudicated delinquent by a tribal court. This bill would make some local agencies, which previously would have met the criteria, ineligible to receive reimbursement for an Indian juvenile placement. It would increase funding available to eligible tribes and their related local agencies.

Because this bill does not alter the amount of funding available for reimbursement, there is no fiscal impact on the Department of Corrections.
